Date: 26th October 2022

Dear AICians,

On my first address to you all, after joining AIC, I would like to solicit your cooperation in an effort to building a strong and vibrant AIC.

As you may be aware, 31st October is the birth anniversary of the Iron Man of India, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and each year the Vigilance Awareness Week is celebrated on the eve of his birthday. This year, the theme selected by CVC is "Corruption free India for a developed Nation"

A country can be considered to be free only when it is rid of corruption, and only then can we transform into a developed economy when our policies are formed on firm moral grounds and when there is zero tolerance for corruption.

This dream can be realised only when each one of us takes ownership to maintain integrity in our daily activities and ensure a transparent and ethical culture in our organisation. I would strongly urge you to practice high level of integrity and be vigilant to your surroundings to ensure such a culture.

This year CVC is conducting the Vigilance Awareness Week between 31st October 2022 to 6th November 2022 to bring in integrity, transparency, and high moral values in our service delivery.

I appeal to you to actively participate in various activities to be conducted throughout this Vigilance Awareness Week (VAW) 2022 to make it a grand success.

Warmest personal regards,

Girija Subramanian
